

25 years later... Prairie Rose Memories

R.M. of Prairie Rose #309 Including the villages of Jansen and Esk
Volume III

How often do you pull out the RM of Prairie Rose #309 history book to recall the past, complete a discussion, or to settle an argument? It hardly seems like it has been 25 years since our grandma and grandpa's put together their memories and our moms and dads submitted their stories.

So it is time to catch up... where are you now?

It is with excitement that a crew of locals have decided it's time to update the "Prairie Rose Memories" history books. 1990 was the first edition, so with not a lot of time, our goal is to have books in hand to you for the Village of Jansen's Homecoming 2017. (June 30 to July 2, 2017)

We hope that everyone who lives (has lived) in the area will include their history. Only with your co-operation will this be possible. Remember this book will be read by your children, grandchildren and all future generations. So this is your opportunity to tell them who you are, where you went and what you did.

Please send us information such as your updated family stories (the last 25 years), photos, etc.. They will be returned to you if you send hardcopies but emails are also greatly appreciated. Interesting and amusing memories will be greatly appreciated. If your neighbours are new to the area, ask them if they would like to be included. As well, we have a facebook page "Prairie Rose Memories 2017" please like us and share the page with anyone you know has (or had) a link to the R.M. of Prairie Rose or Village of Jansen.

This is your opportunity to reserve your copy. As we plan to only order the number of books that have been pre-ordered this is your way to assure that you will have copies to pass on to your family.

This will be a hard cover book with hopes that it will seamlessly fit with Volumes I & II. Not being sure what to expect for response we are unsure of cost at this time.

The books will be sent to the publishers of the original set for printing and binding, ensuring a high quality finished product.

We ask that all stories and pictures be submitted by January 15, 2016.
